The Facades Eric Lundgren

Unless, that is, you're stuck spending time in Trude, the fictional city at the heart of debut author Eric Lundgren's novel The Facades. Once considered the "Munich of the Midwest" in the late 1890s, the place "still looks beautiful on a map," but the next century would prove to be most barbarous to its one beautiful feats of architectural wonder.

The Facades by Eric Lundgren - Goodreads

Trude is the real character in The Facades. Eric Lundgren seems to hit his stride when describing the city's history and the perpetually disgruntled architect who contributed to its infamous design. Take for instance Trude's mall: Built as a spiral with a seemingly unsolvable, mysterious labyrinth of
